

OUR PRECIOUS POOPER GAME

Directions for the game:

1. Print and cut out Our Precious Pooper prompts. Each person playing should have his or her own separate prompt.
2. Each player answers his or her own prompt on the given piece of paper.
3. Have one designated person read all the prompts out loud. Laughter ensues.

Other ideas:

- Pin up the filled-out responses on a clothesline
- Guess who wrote what
- Scrapbook responses

$!#%

What embarrassing and/or inappropriate things have your children said in public?

---

Describe your most awkward exit from a public place:

---

What ways did you amuse yourself during middle-of-the night feedings?

---

What's the most hilarious pregnancy or early parenting story you've heard?

---

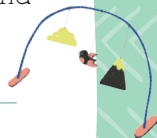

What lies you did you tell your child about food, or did your parents tell you about food?

---

Which absurdly expensive, useless, and hideous baby item have you seen?

---

What's the most helpful and/or the silliest parenting tip you've heard?

---

What were your strangest food cravings?

---

Describe your biggest travel disaster:

---

